Team Activity Instructions- Privately assign each swimmer a teammate. Swimmers have to find and present an item that makes them think of that teammate. For example, one swimmer presented a stuffed animal, another wrote a small poem and another used food. The whole team can take a guess who it is. This challenge has no winner, however, it is silly, fun, and is great for virtually keeping up the team bond.